

ANGELO DALL'AGLIO

Born in Bologna in 1969, he graduated at the Milan Polytechnic in Architecture, specifically in Industrial Design and Furnishing. He specialised in the development and design of chairs, armchairs and divans, starting off directly from his experience in production, and, at the same time, he dedicated himself to interior design. He collaborated with various companies in the furnishing sector, as designer and engineering planner.